Meridian Global Corp — Confidential Internal Document

Employee Expense Reimbursement Policy

Purpose

This policy outlines the guidelines and procedures for the reimbursement of business expenses incurred by Meridian Global Corp employees. It ensures consistent treatment of expenses, promotes fiscal responsibility, and clarifies what constitutes a reimbursable item.

Scope

This policy applies to all full-time, part-time, and contract employees of Meridian Global Corp globally who incur business-related expenses on behalf of the company. Compliance is mandatory for all employees and their approving managers.

General Principles

Employees must exercise prudence and good judgment with company funds, ensuring expenses are legitimate, directly business-related, and supported by appropriate documentation. Any exceptions to this policy require prior written approval from a Vice President or higher authority.

Expense Categories and Limits

Meal Allowances

Daily meal allowances cover reasonable food and non-alcoholic beverages incurred during approved business travel or off-site work. Individual meal receipts are not typically required for these allowances.

* Domestic Travel (within country of employment): Up to ■500 per person, per day.

* International Travel: Up to ■2,000 per person, per day.

These allowances are for individual meals. Group meals or client entertainment expenses must be itemized and approved separately.

Travel Reimbursement

* Flights:

* Flights under 6 hours duration: Economy class ticket is the standard and reimbursable class.

* Flights 6 hours duration or longer: Business class ticket is permissible and reimbursable.

All flights must be booked through Meridian Global Corp's approved travel portal or designated travel agency. Upgrades or deviations from this policy require prior approval from a Department Head.

* Ground Transportation: Reimbursement for reasonable and necessary ground transportation (e.g., taxis, ride-sharing services, public transport, rental cars) will be provided. Employees are encouraged to use cost-effective options. Personal vehicle mileage will be reimbursed at the prevailing corporate rate.

Accommodation

Hotel accommodation costs are reimbursable up to specified caps, excluding incidentals.

* Domestic Accommodation (within country of employment): Up to $150 USD per night.

* International Accommodation: Up to $250 USD per night.

Employees are encouraged to utilize Meridian Global Corp's preferred hotel vendors. Any expenditure exceeding these caps requires explicit pre-approval from the relevant Senior Director.

Expense Reporting and Reimbursement Procedure

Receipt Requirements

Original, itemized receipts are mandatory for all individual expenses exceeding $200. For expenses below this threshold, a detailed entry in the expense report is sufficient.

Electronic receipts (e-receipts, scanned copies) are acceptable if they clearly show the vendor name, date, itemized cost, and proof of payment. Credit card statements alone are not considered sufficient documentation.

Advance Request Procedure

For employees requiring an advance for anticipated business expenses, a formal request must be submitted via the Meridian Expense Portal at least five (5) business days prior to the date the funds are required. The request must include a detailed estimate of expenses and be approved by the employee's direct manager. Advances are typically granted for international travel or projects requiring substantial upfront outlays.

Submission and Approval

All expense reports must be submitted through the Meridian Expense Portal within ten (10) business days of the expense incurrence or completion of travel. The employee's direct manager is responsible for reviewing and approving or rejecting expense reports within five (5) business days of submission. Unapproved or non-compliant expenses will be returned to the employee for correction or justification. Reimbursements will be processed with the next payroll cycle following final approval.

Non-Reimbursable Expenses

The following items are generally considered personal expenses and are not eligible for reimbursement:

- * Alcoholic beverages
- * Personal entertainment (e.g., in-room movies, gym fees, massages)
- * Fines or legal penalties (e.g., traffic tickets, parking fines)
- * Personal services (e.g., grooming, laundry services not included in hotel rates, childcare)
- * Expenses for spouses, family members, or friends traveling with the employee without specific company approval
- * Loss or theft of personal property

Policy Compliance and Enforcement

Failure to adhere to this policy may result in delayed reimbursement, non-reimbursement of expenses, or disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment. Meridian Global Corp reserves the right to audit all expense reports and supporting documentation.
